

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

1. Qualifications

- High school graduation or equivalent to a Chinese high school graduate;
- Efficient Chinese language skills (4 grade of HSK or above) or efficient English language skills (TOEFL 80 or IELTS 5.5).
- With age 18 through 30.

Note: Native English speakers or graduates from high school where English is an official teaching language are exempt from TOEFL or IELTS.

2. Required Application Materials

The following materials are required to submit together with your Application Form:

- Photocopy of Passport (including the valid visa page if you are already in China);
- Copy of diploma or certificate of the last school you have attended.
- High school academic transcript. If you have also attended any secondary or post-secondary schools, please send us the transcripts of the schools that you have attended. HSK test results. If you intend to enroll in Bachelor Programs in English, please submit TOEFL or IELTS scores. Native English speakers or graduates from high schools where English is an official teaching language are exempt from TOEFL and IELTS scores. If you don't have any TOEFL or IELTS scores, please submit a statement of purpose composed in English.
- Statement of Purpose / Study Plan.
- Evidence of financial support. You can either fill the Financial Sponsorship Form (available online) or provide a bank deposit certificate.
- Photocopy of Foreigner Physical Examination Form (printed by Chinese quarantine authority). The medical examinations must cover all the items listed in the Foreigner Physical Examination Form. Incomplete records or those without the signature of the attending physician, the official stamp of the hospital or a sealed photograph of the applicants are invalid.

Applicants with age under 18 are required to have a guardian in China. Guardianship certificates must be submitted

If you are a current student at one of China's universities, please present a certificate agreeing to your transfer from its office of international students.

Note: Documents in language other than Chinese or English need to be translated in to Chinese or English.

3. Apply Online

- Undergraduate application is open from March 1 to June 15.
- Please log on the <http://apply.isc.bit.edu.cn> , create an account, complete the online application form, submit all required materials. The application procedure is as follows:
 - Create an account → Fill in online application form (Upload required documents) → Waiting for University response → pay the application fee → Print out application form and submit hardcopy of all the required materials to the University.

4. Admission Notice and Entry Visa

- If your admission is granted, BIT will send you an Admission Notice and a JW202 Form by mail.
- With the BIT Admission Notice, JW202 Form (visa form), private passport and personal Physical Examination Record, please go to the Chinese embassy or consulate to apply for entry visa (X status visa) to China.

5. Campus Housing Application

If you wish to live on campus, please complete a separate campus housing application form, and submit it as early as possible.

6. Registration

- Admitted students should register at the International Student Center (ISC) of BIT, and follow the registration schedule specified in the Admission Notice.
- If a student fail to register on time without a notice to and agreed from ISC of BIT in advance, he/she may be regarded as giving up the admission.
- To register, a student must submit the Admission Notice, JW202 Form, and your Physical Examination Record by original test result.